WOMAN HAS A FIT, LAWYERS NEARLY FIGHT IN COURT

Miss Bradley, Accused of Aiding Mrs. Clark in Abducting Her Boy, Succumbed Under Prosecutor's Questions.

JULIUS COHEN PROTESTED AGAINST SOME QUESTIONING

Assistant District Attorney Krotel Responded with a Threat to Punch Mr. Cohen's Head, and a Fight Was Prevented With Difficulty by Spectators.

The hearing in the case of Miss May Bradley, charged with assisting Mrs. Maud Clarke to steal her son from his adopted parents, Dr. and Mrs. Carleton Kremer, broke up in a sensational scene in Centre Street Police Court this afternoon. Miss Bradley, closely questioned by Assistant District Attorney Krotel, developed hysteria on the witness stand and worked herself into what appeared to be an epileptic fit. She was carried from the court room and revived with difficulty.

Then Miss Bradley's lawyer, Julius Cohen, criticized Mr. Krotel so vehemently that Mr. Krotel threatened to punch his nose.

Magistrate Wahle adjourned the hearing indefinitely.

FINDS $9,500 ON TRAIN; TAKES IT BACK TO OWNER

Race Track Runner Gets $1,000 for Honesty, but Would Rather Have a Job.

Stanley French, a race track runner, stands high to-day among honest men of the race track.

Going home from the track last night on the Sheepshead Bay train, French stumbled over a wallet full of big bills amounting to $9,500—nearly $1,000 bills and $600 in small bills.

The money belonged to Henry McDaniel, a well known trainer. In slipping it into his inside pocket it went through the armhole of the vest and dropped to the train floor, where French found it.

French returned the money as he found it to McDaniel at the track to-day. The trainer rewarded the finder with $1,000 bill, which French took unwillingly. McDaniel had to insist before French would take the reward.

"Get me a steady job instead," said French. "I would rather have it."

French will probably get the job, too. He has a wife and family and needs a weekly income.

Important Notice To Evening World Readers:

Owing to the large increase in circulation, The World has exceeded its white paper contract by over 5,000 tons. Consequently we cannot get enough white paper to print the editions and allow returns of unsold copies as we formerly did. We have instructed the newsdealers to only take the number of Evening Worlds that they are sure of selling each day. As the supply is limited, we earnestly request that you order in advance from your newsdealer; otherwise he cannot always be sure of having a copy for you.

HEINZE, MORSE AND THOMAS ARE FORCED OUT OF BIG BANK

BEN BAN WON THE FORDHAM AT BELMONT TRACK

Beat Brookdale Nymph in the Last Strides and at 4 to 1.

(Special to the Evening World.)
BELMONT RACE TRACK, Oct. 18.—H. P. Duryea's Ben Ban beat Brookdale Nymph on the post in the Fordham Handicap, the feature of the card here to-day, after running a great race. Last time out, at a difference of 24 pounds, Brookdale Nymph beat Ben Ban two lengths.

Kentucky Head, after running second all the way, hung on long enough to be third.

Jack Martin rode Jack Atkins in this race and, as usual, when Martin doesn't contemplate anything seriously, he was all tied up at the post and was raced out of it before he got going. After that Martin made a blurt at making up some ground, but it amounted to nothing.

Uncle Wins in a Walk.

Uncle in a walk was the finish of the fourth race. The $30,000 colt was never in trouble and at the end was seven lengths in front of Lawrence P. Daly, with champion of the Sanford entry third.

Uncle strolled prominently, and as far as a shot he couldn't be very logically backed. A big play centred on the Sanford entry and Earl G. to be in the money. Earl G. was just outside, however, finishing fourth.

Miller had six first-mount of the day on Uncle. Because of his non-appearance in the previous races there were six kinds of rumors regarding the boy's future. The rumors, however, had no foundation.

—St Valentine First Winner.

They played St. Valentine and as far as a two-year-old in the first race and by the narrowest of margins, cashed. Crafty was a good second, with Yada third.

Long Shot Gets Face Money.

Wavy Crest, a 9 to 10 favorite in the second race, won as he liked by three lengths. The surprise of the race was Ober, a 1 to 1 shot, who was a good second. Wavy, who was third. Five lengths back, Frank Farrell backed Wave Crest heavily and got back some of his losses on Grapple yesterday.

Lane Allen Won Easily.

Lane Allen, favorite in the third event, won easily. He followed the pace closely and came away in the stretch. Prince Charming was held off by Lord Stanhope in the final sixteenth. Lord Stanhope was strong when he was shut off, J. F. Donahue quit.

1900 FOURTH RACE.—For two years old, $1,000 added; six furlongs, straight.
